St Patty's Brunch

Still feeling lucky after this one

Breakfast burritos, mimosas, and a few green treats to start the day... but the best part, as always, is our residents.

Grateful for moments like these and the community we get to share

A&B Volunteers

LA Work for Food Pantry

Ardence & Bloom

A&B in the Community: Serving Hope

Our team recently spent an incredible morning volunteering with L.A. Works at a local food pantry, and the experience was truly rewarding! We rolled up our sleeves to sort through fresh produce and pack nutritious to-go boxes for families and seniors in our neighborhood. It was a powerful reminder of how small acts of service can have a significant impact, and we're so proud to support the vital work to ensure no one in our community goes hungry.

What They're Saying

"I've been at Ardence & Bloom for a year now and it has been a lovely experience! The apartments are beautiful and well maintained. They keep up with maintenance throughout the complex and make sure everything is up to par. The building feels very safe and the neighbors are all lovely and respectful. They are very community based with the monthly events they host and it is great way to meet others. Lastly, Rebecca has been lovely to work with! she is always so sweet and helpful with any issues you may have with your apartment! I truly recommend checking out Ardence and Bloom!" - L

Live Well

We Explore Earth Day Festival at Elysian Park

The We Explore Earth Day Festival at Elysian Park is set to be an energizing day of wellness and environmental connection held at the scenic Helipad area on Saturday, April 11, 2026. This free community gathering perfectly blends relaxation with hands-on learning, making it an ideal weekend escape for those looking to recharge outdoors. Attendees can expect a high-energy atmosphere filled with live music and creative discovery, all set against one of the city's most iconic natural backdrops.

Mindful Movement: Start your morning with guided yoga sessions and immersive sound baths designed to help you sync with nature's rhythm.

Creative Workshops: Dive into interactive stations where you can craft your own vision boards or learn the basics of herbalism from local experts.

Eco-Education & Prizes: Explore a variety of information booths hosted by environmental organizations, where visiting the exhibits earns you entries into a free community raffle.

Scenic Setting: Located at the park's famous Helipad, the event offers stunning panoramic views of the Los Angeles skyline and surrounding greenery.

Pet Of The Month

Cutie Pie Brodie

A&B April Pet Of The Month: Brodie

One of the first puppies to call Ardence & Bloom home, 2-year-old Brodie has been stealing hearts and collecting treats since day one! With his signature golden curls and a smile that could melt any neighbor, this sweet Golden Doodle is the ultimate bark park pro and our favorite office greeter.

Next time you see him with his favorite ball, be sure to stop for some pets—he's always ready to make a new best friend!
