What Residents Are Saying

BR.

"What a great place to live, I've resided at the property for one year and it's been a blessing to have found such a great place. The management staff is second to none, Janet, Rebecca, Meagan, Ryan, Nick and Matt. The team has an amazing customer service approach and is always willing to go above and beyond to assist with any concern. I remember dropping my keys down the trash shoot by mistake and Matt was there to the rescue to assist. I didn't think I would move back to Hollywood, but it has been a great experience, and I owe it to the team. Thank you!"

Free Friday Jazz At LACMA

Swing into May with one of LA's most beloved traditions—Jazz at LACMA! Every Friday, starting May 2nd and running through October, the Tony Austin Quartet presents smooth, soulful sounds at the Smidt Welcome Plaza in a free outdoor concert that seamlessly blends world-class jazz with iconic museum vibes. Grab a blanket, pack some snacks, and soak in the scene under the open sky while grooving to live music. Bonus perk: LA County residents get free museum admission after 3 PM, making this the perfect Friday night cultural escape right in the heart of the city.

A&B Rooftop Beehives

Buzzing with Good News

Our rooftop beehives are thriving! During a recent visit, our beekeeper reported that both queen bees are healthy and active—producing Queen Mandibular Pheromone, the magical scent that keeps the hive calm and cooperative. The team conducted a full hive inspection, checking egg-laying patterns, food stores, and beeswax production, and we're thrilled to share that everything is in perfect harmony. It's all sweetness up there—how we like it at Arden & Bloom!
